I've been waiting a while for something like this where the experience has been designed with standing up in mind rather than sitting down. Travel to the Solar System planets in an instant and then hover over the planets and basically look at them and Space all round them; very nice and well made! Saturn looks massive in VR you can also check out the International Space Station close up. My only gripe is I can't have a closer look at the Moon as it's not a Planet but that would be an awesome edition in a one off capacity!

My setup is using GTX1080 and 1.4 super sampling and it now works fine after latest update - you probably can go a little higher and that's what I'm gonna do later...

I think families and people who are new to VR would like this program as a 'look at what VR can do' sorta program, and also for people who just like looking at Space stuff.. As someone who loves basketball i gotta say this game is awful there are no positives and some in excusable cons. Im 100% sure that the NBA is the most used league and its impossible to play in it. 1. there is no way to see your record or the standings around the league 2. this is the worst part of the game when you coach in the NBA there is no free agency at all or there is no list of free agents and all the big name players resign with there original team so you have to build your team throught the draft and thats it. Wow this is terrible. I am such a huge Neil Gaiman fan that even when I read other reviews marking this as terrible I bought it anyway. I'm not sure what happened here. How did they make such an insufferable game? I made it through exactly 17 painful minutes of repeatedly clicking on the same highlighted ghostable items in a room listening to the same annoying sound effects over and over in order to slowly fill up a scare bar made of skulls so that it would beat that level before utterly giving up on this game. I wish steam had a refund policy. This could have been a sandwich or a terry pratchett novel. I wasted this $10. Don't do like I did. You could just open a screenshot of the game, put on a halloween music playlist, and click on one spot of the image for 10 minutes and imagine yourself to have beat that level instead of playing this game. It would be as interesting and less annoying.. Ooh yay, yet another 'hurr-durr dis gem iz hard' game.

Ok, I get that some people get some entertainment out of these, and most of them are cleverly thought out and put together, so that no time is spent figuring out the mechanics. But this game just doesn't play well at all. I couldn't figure out what the hitboxes of the wheels were, making the game not just hard, but also annoying. It wouldn't have been bad if I could have set my own controls. Using the arrow keys to move is meh, I prefer AWSD, but using the up arrow to jump just makes this game unplayable. Also the physics are st00pid.

Unfortunately I can't recommend the game, despite the low price. Save your pennies, folks!

UPDATE: So I was contacted to change my review in light of recent changes that have been made by the developer.

One thing I can give credit for is that the developer seems to care about constructive criticism and wants to improve upon what he has made and has as such implemented AWSD controls after my review. Jumping however, is still a pain as I'd rather have a dedicated button that isn't part of my control pad. Music doesn't restart upon death anymore, fortunately removing another layer of obnoxiousness. Hitboxes are still eh.

A small thing I forgot to mention in my first review was how the first checkpoint was stupid, because you need a run-up to do the next gauntlet, meaning you have to track back a little every time you die. This doesn't make the game hard, just annoying.

All in all, I'd say that maybe I was too harsh at first and the game is just unfinished and needs some polish. This game does have potential to be functional, and I'm sure the developer can do it!. Great graphics and sound, and a fun workout! The developers put serious polish into small details and transitions. There's little graphical effects and sounds that create a nice feeling of impact. The transitions when you're getting your♥♥♥♥♥kicked are very cool. Awesome game Survios!. Yet another wave shooter. But guess what? This one is actually fun to play. I got this game on the Halloween sale for $2.49. I can happily say that that in the ~15 minutes of playing this game, that I already got my money's worth. I think kids especially would love this, but even as an adult, I enjoyed it.

So the ghosts appear 180 degrees in front of you, which means you can play sitting or standing. You have one gun and one vacuum contraption (which you can switch to a gun), and you suck the ghosts into the vacuum after injuring them with your gun just like Ghostbusters. Slimer and the marshmallow man are missing though (very disappointing there).

There are several ghost types. And after the first two waves, the action gets very hectic. I have not been able to beat the boss ghosts yet. The gunplay is responsive and feels good. I suggest just holding the trigger down as you do have unlimited ammo and there is no reloading. There are 3 maps, you unlock the 2nd map when you score more than 2,000 points in the first map, which wasn't too difficult for me. There are also leaderboards.

My only complaint is that I wish there were more different guns that did different things and that you could decide when to use the powerups. The powerups just happen when you fill up the meter, so the "powerup" use is not always advantageous, just random. Coop mode would also be nice. Also, with the different maps, the ghosts could use different skins so that it feels different from map to map.

Sale Price Rating 7V10, normal price rating 5V10 ... So good recommendation on sale, tepid recommendation at normal price. This, like other toposims, is definitely different from the dull, ice cream-looking mountains. When you get close enough to the trees (as close as you usually do) they appear real.. sigh What happened? I played the first iteration of this game years ago and was hooked by it. I come back today and play this desperate travesty.

A wonderful, simple little hacking game utterly ruined by unnecessary features and a terrible GUI.

Play Hacknet or Uplink instead.. Nice sandbox sci fi pixel game with cool story and you can play with some mods also you can play with friends

it has a quest its like Rpg you got main quest and side quest its fun real fun and bit harder than other one if you know what game is that

Pros:

- Many ways to die
- Atmospheric
- Simple
- Customizable character sheet
- Free
- Achievements

Cons

- Finishing can be quite tedious
- What items are good/bad not clear

Personal Rating: 3.5/5. Right now, I would recommend the game, if you have a friend or two who will also play it with you. Admittedly, it's been a while since I picked it up, but the AI in the game is a margin above target dummy. The ship controls well, the (limited) game modes are pretty fun (timed or kills), and the music is amazing (seriously though, this soundtrack is the reason I cannot wait until this game is actually done).

My only qualms with the game are its limitations. There is enough here to warrant playing it with friends for a couple of hours, but single-player is non-existent right now (because of the lack of a tough AI).. Do NOT BUY. This game is dead. There is no update at all and this game is still in early access.

Crooks like dev of this game thought of an idea for a game and create a prototype of it and label it as early access hoping to hit the Jackpot but when sales is miserably bad, they just bail and leave the game to die.

The game was launch on march 2017 and it went to down 65% discount after two months.
Dev only continue to slash the price with discount to lure more victims. Don't fall for it.

They are probably making another prototype game to scam again.. Once you start playing one of the Rusty Lake's episodes, you are doomed: you will begin to want to know more and understand more! And suddenly you will be one of us....The past is never dead, this is not even past <3. Time Played :31 minutes.

TOO MUCH TIME PLAYING THIS...

10/10 (Burkina Faso). The hell even is a Benbo?. This has a lot of potential but needs a lot of work. There are a lot of cool things in this demo that could easily be made better with simple tweaks, like adding motion control feedback with the shield or striking anything really. The hands felt slightly off to me too, like they were in my wrists. The inability to turn was aggravating on both track pad and teleport. I hope the team continues to devleop this game and really polish it up. Can't wait to see a final version.. Ikki Tosen not gonna lie I buy this DLC cuz Ryo fu, Lu Bu :3
. Steam offered - I bought, why not?. After purchase this DLC was not installed. Waiting for the developer to fix this issue.

New info as of 23-4-2017:

The DLC is now downloadable and installs as intended. The developer has fixed the issue.
